Canvassing Board—Other Results are Announced—Miss Nielson Gets Big Vote

SEVERAL TOTALS ALTERED

W. H. Stutsman, of Mandan, was nominated for railroad commissioner
in the June 30 primary, on the face of officially counted but unchecked
figures of the state canvassing board.
At the conclusion of the board's work at noon today, Stutsman was given a majority over Jack Williams,
next highest independent candidate
for railroad commissioner, and who,
it was thought on the basis of unofficial tabulations, had been nominated for the office.

Members of the canvassing board
include William Lemke, chairman Republican state committee; and S.
Johnson, chairman Democratic state committee. The board is making its canvass in the office of the secretary of state.

The vote on railroad commissioner
was given as follows:

Nonpartisan—
C. F. Dupuis	49,306
Frank Mihollan	51,287
C. W. McDonnell	54,487
Independents—
W. H. Stutsman	51,437
Jack Williams	51,174
E. J. Krueger	50,177

The canvass shows that Dupuis was beaten and Mihollan, league candidate, escaped defeat by Jack Williams 113 votes. Stutsman outranked both Mihollan and Dupuis.

This is only a part of the unofficial figures as heretofore tabulated. Governor Frazier's majority

What Independents Got
The independents nominated Thos.
Hall for secretary of state, John Steen for treasurer, W. H. Stutsman for railroad commissioner, and on the non-partisan ballot, A. M. Christianson got a greater vote than Seth Richardson,
endorsed by the Nonpartisan league,
and Minnie J. Nielson a greater vote
for superintendent of public instruction
than Ruth M. Johnson. Miss Nielson's total was increased by women's votes. The three league referred laws were defeated, and the anti-red flag bill initiated. The Non-partisans captured all other offices.

ously injured when their automobiles
plunged off a 200-foot cliff in Bear Creek

AS MINERS QUIT

Indianapolis, Ind., July 27.—Officials of the United Mine Workers of America today continued their close scrutiny
at news dispatches regarding the strike which has closed all but a few of the bituminous mines in Illinois
and which has spread into Indiana,
closing approximately half the mines
in this state. No action was taken by the national officers, however.

The 22 mines in the Clinton fields
were reported to be completely closed,
with 4,000 miners idle.

SHAMROCK GOES
IN LEAD EARLY
IN YACHT RACE

Another Attempt Made to Run
Off Final Battle for International Cup

BOTH GET AWAY SLOW

Sandy Hook, N. J., July 27.—Shamrock the IV today led Resolute across the starting line in the "final" international yacht race to settle the destinies of America's cup. The official starting time was the same for both
at 2:17, because both had failed to cross within the two minutes
handicap limit.

Sir Thomas Lipton announced that he would challenge again for America's cup should he fail to lift it with his present effort.

"I will not do so for a year," he said. "I would only be sportsmanlike to wait that long in order to give some one else a chance should they so desire."

The British sportsman by no means admitted or even intimated that his present effort would not be successful.

"I honestly believe that when the contest was called off Shamrock had by far the better position," he had been coming up in time to have this said," he said.

What was to be the final race yesterday was called off because the breeze was so light that the yachts
could not make the 30 mile course
in the time of six hours.

Starting on the 30-mile windward
and leeward course, Shamrock had the better of it. Her skipper, berthing her nicely to windward before
the yachts crossed the line.

Preparing for the first leg, a 15-
mile beat to windward from the Amherst channel lightship, south, the sloops stood along to southward of the line, then raced for the light-
ship, reached past the line and coming about, headed for it when the starting signal was sounded.

Shamrock Skipper Wins
After a short hitch, Resolute came about on the port tack, and the two yachts slipped along headed in toward Seabright.

Having beaten Capt. Adams, of Resolute, for position the first time in the series, Capt. Burton crossed the line on the starboard tack and then came about on the port tack, apparently hunting for a better breeze.

Resolute did likewise. Although the official starting time of both boats
remained the same, Shamrock actually crossed 40 seconds ahead of Resolute.

May Not Finish
Although the breeze had increased to 5 knots, the sloops had the trouble
breaking inshore, the fluky wind
heading one and then the other, causing them to call to leeward. Already observers began predicting the race
could not be finished before the six-hour time limit expired. The wind came in variable streaks and first one and then the other would point
better.

CAR DEMANDS

Railroad Commission Officials
of Northwest to Go There

St. Paul, July 27.—Toward obtaining relief from the present car shortage situation which threatens financial and other difficulties the moving of the big 1920 crops, Commissioner
O. J. Jacobson, of the state railroad and warehouse department, today announced that he plans to leave Saturday for Washington with representatives of the North Dakota and South Dakota railroad commission to remain
there until the necessary measures
are obtained from the Interstate Commerce Commission. Priority orders will be urged to solve the problem as
was urged to get coal for the northwest.

Commissioner Jacobson plans to attend a meeting in Fargo to name a committee from that state. He expects Commissioner J. J. Murphy, of South Dakota, and Commissioner S. J.
Aandahl, of North Dakota, to join him
on the trip to Washington.

FIVE BILLION

NATIONAL TAX

Official Figures Made Public by Government Show Huge
Total Collected

COLLECTION COST IS HUGE

New York State Paid Heaviest Tax, According to Figures
of Revenue Department

Washington, July 27.—The nation's greatest tax bill—$5,410,284,874—was collected during the fiscal year ending June 30.

The official figures made public today show that the tax paid in the last 12 months had exceeded all estimates
by approximately $200,000,000 and was nearly 75 per cent larger than the total of taxes paid in either of the years of 1918 or 1919. The 1918 tax levy yielded $3,894,619,638 and the taxes in 1919 aggregated $3,839,960,612.

Collection of this record-breaking assessment cost the government $29-750,000, or about 55 cents for each $100.

Revenues Show Increase Revenues derived from income and excess profits taxes alone were $3-844,686,737 for the 12 months, which is nearly $1,250,000,000 larger than collections from the same sources in either of the last two years. An increase for this year also was shown in the receipts from miscellaneous
taxes which brought in $1,465,729,136.

These taxes totalled $1,243,041,909,
and $855,591,700 for the 1919 and 1918
respectively.

New York state continued to maintain its record of leading the nation
as a taxpayer, its total tax burden amounting to $1,416,939,274. Of this the receipts from miscellaneous
taxes which brought in $1,465,729,136.

These taxes totalled $1,243,041,909,
and $855,591,700 for the 1919 and 1918
respectively.

Chicago Pays Heavy Tax
The Chicago district paid all but $40,316,592 of the total Illinois taxes
of $448,233,070. Next following Illinois was Ohio with taxes of $372-
319,546 and Massachusetts with $350-928,283.

North and South Dakota, both in one collection district, were called upon to pay $9,541,681 from their combined areas and with the exception of the Philippine Islands, were
at the foot of the list.

Total collections by the following states or groups of states, where more than one state comprises a district are:

Colorado and Wyoming, $39,569-
496; Iowa, $39,019,372; Michigan,
$281,740,822; Montana, Utah and Idaho, $20,757,741; Minnesota, $76,997-401; North and South Dakota, $9-641,683; Wisconsin, $92,923,352;
Philippine Islands, $1,423,478.

HUNT ANOTHER TRUNK.

Detroit, July 27.—A statement to the police by Mrs. Leo Trumbull, wife of a patrolman, that Mrs. Eugene Leroy, victim of Detroit's trunk murder mystery, had confided in her that she was about to become a mother injected a new theory into the case today.

Police today divided their attention
between a hunt for Leroy, husband of the slain woman, and a second trunk
believed to contain the vital organs
of the body and which is known to have been sent from the Harper avenue apartment house where the Leroy lived.

Mrs. Trumbull was to go to New York today to view the body.

Planned Death
The police declared today that had established that Mrs. Leroy planned an attempt at suicide before her death. That Mrs. Leroy was slain in the Harper apartment house was conclusively proven today, according to the police, by finding there a blanket identical with those in which the body was wrapped before it was placed in the trunk.

Another blanket had not been accounted for and police believe the vital organs of the body were placed in it and put in the second trunk.

New York, July 27.—Nine-year-old Jennie Stahurski and her two-year-old brother were killed by a bolt of lightning at Bayside. When the count-medical examiner arrived for an inquest he found both bodies buried in the back yard of the home up to their necks.

Relatives and friends quoted a belief that a person struck by lightning was never killed outright and could be restored by earth currents
which would draw out the electricity.
They protested vigorously when the examiner ordered the bodies removed from their "graves."

LIGNITE ENOUGH
BUT OTHER COAL
IS SCARCE HERE

Western Fuel is Held Up Because of Railroad Car Shortage

CAR SHORTAGE THE CAUSE

Cement Production Held Up by Strikes at Montana
Mills

The city will be able to obtain plenty of lignite coal for winter use
but will have a hard time securing
very much western coal, said coal
dealers here this morning.

E. H. Howell, manager of the C. A.
Finch Lumber Co., said this morning that they were not receiving any Wyoming or Montana coal as yet
and were not getting much.

"The mines are producing the coal," he said, "but no cars are available to ship. There are no cars in strikes in the western field as yet,
but we cannot be sure as to when there will be. The mines have asked all dealers to back up while they can."

Lignite Easy to Get The Washburn Lignite Coal Co. reported this morning that they were receiving plenty of lignite and expected to have no difficulty in obtaining a sufficient supply of it.

"The state can secure plenty of lignite," they said, "but only require about four hours for us to get a train of coal down from the mine at Wilton. People are beginning to stock up. The main bulk of the winter coal is put in after August 1."

Enough Cfs Here
"We are getting enough cars to move the lignite. The Northern Pacific gives us enough and the Son is supplying cars as fast as possible.
More people are using lignite each year and there will be sure to be enough of that."

Cement Supply Short
Mr. Howell at the Finch Lumber
Co. stated that the cement situation was bad. The Montana mills, which supply cement for this section, are tied up with a strike and no cement
is being produced at them.

"Fifteen cars of cement have been shipped in from the east for the start of the Bismarck-Mandan bridge work,"
he said. "Unless the strike at the Montana mills is ended soon the bridge work may be held up because of the cement shortage."

HEAR FREIGHT
RATE INCREASE
PLEA ON AUG. 12

State Commission Sets This Date
After Conference With Railroad Men

Hearings on the petition of railroads
operating in North Dakota for increased freight rates within the state
will be held before the board of railroad commissioners here on August 12. The date was decided upon after a conference of representatives of the roads and the commissioners yesterday afternoon.

It is the expectation of the commissioners that by August 12 the Interstate Commerce Commission will have handed down its decision upon
the interstate rate increase pleas now
before the commission.

Railroads in North Dakota, it is understood, had prepared new schedules for increased rates but withheld their case until upon the increas-
to be granted by the Interstate Commission. The Interstate Commission has asked that the intrastate rates be made to conform.

The increase that will be necessary to do this, in the opinion of some rate experts, would have been about 25 per cent until the railroads filed new petitions for rates. Following the 800,000 rate award, the increase now is a variously estimated 10 to 25 per cent.

It is the desire of railroads that the intrastate increases, if granted, be as effective at the same time as the interstate increases, which are expected to be granted.

NEW STATE LAWS

Regular Examinations of Bank
of North Dakota Provided

SEEKING 10,000 SIGNATURES

Laws Affecting Newspapers and
the State Board of Administration Included

Petitions by which an effort will be made to place five measures before the voters this fall were received in Bismarck today.

Ten thousand signatures will be sought to the petitions by Friday night, the number necessary to put the initiative measures before the people at the November election. The laws which it is proposed to initiate
by popular vote are as follows:

A law providing for regular examinations of the Bank of North Dakota and other state institutions.

A law giving counties, cities,
villages, townships and school districts the right to handle their own funds through local banks if they so desire. Leaves it compulsory to deposit all moneys belonging to all state institutions
and the state proper in the Bank of North Dakota.

A law ordering the Bank of North Dakota to not make loans
on land except to actual farmers
residing in North Dakota.

A law that will permit the publication of private legal notices in local papers, all county legal notices and other official publications of all kinds to continue to be published in the county official paper as at present.

A law placing all strictly educational matters under the direct supervision of the superintendent of public instruction, taking these powers from the board of administration.

The proposed law providing for examinations of the Bank of North Dakota and other state institutions is the nature of an amendment to Section 359 of the Compiled Laws of 1913. The law proposed follows:

"Section 359. (Members of Board)
There is hereby created a board of auditors for the state of North Dakota which shall consist of the secretary of state, the state auditor,
and the attorney general, whose duty it shall be to examine and audit the accounts, books and vouchers of the state treasurer, and of the Bank of North Dakota and of all other industrial institutions of the state, and to take an account and ascertain the amount of funds in the state treasury or belonging to the state, and to take an account and ascertain the assets and liabilities of the Bank of North Dakota and of all other indus-
trial institutions of the state, and to
least twice in each year without previous notice to the treasurer, or to the officials of said state institutions, and make report thereof, and
of their acts and doings in the premises, to the governor, and make the same public and also to witness and attest the transfer and delivery of accounts, books, vouchers and funds
by any outgoing treasurer, or bank
manager, or manager of any industrial institution, to his successor in office, and to report the same to the governor, and the failure or neglect of the aforesaid board of auditors, or any member thereof, to do and per-

GOV. COOLIDGE AND WIFE

RAILROADS PAY
STATE TAX ON THEIR INCOME

Only One Company Pays Tax
Under Protest and Lawsuit
is Not Probable

STATE RICHER BY $175,000

Railroads operating in North Dakota have paid approximately $175-
000 income tax under the state law.
Payments were received yesterday,
the last day before delinquency under the law.

The payment of the tax, it is said,
marks the first case of the payment of large sums of taxes imposed by the legislature of 1919 which have been paid without a lawsuit.

The Soo line, it is understood,
paid the income tax under protest,
while the Northern Pacific, Great Northern and Chicago, Milwaukee and St. Paul lines paid the tax without protest. The amount paid by the Northern Pacific is understood to have been the largest amount, slightly exceeding that of the Great Northern.

Law Made in 1919
The legislature in 1919 enacted an income tax law which provided an income tax to be paid by individuals and in addition a tax of 3 per cent on the net income of corporations, firms
or joint stock companies. The law,
unlike the federal income tax law,
does not exempt the individual from payment on tax on dividends received from corporations which pay the tax.
It is said the legislature will be asked
next winter to exempt individual incomes in such cases.

It is considered doubtful if the railroads will make a fight in the courts
against the tax, since the railroad income now is guaranteed under the Esch-Cummings bill and the tax will be added in the railroad expenses,
and paid in the end by the people
generally.

Others Pay
The law provided that the income tax should be paid by July 25. In addition to the railroads, the Standard Oil company, the Pullman company
and the Ford Motor company, which has a branch at Fargo, were among the corporations which paid their taxes.

The total amount to be derived by the state from the corporation income tax is estimated at a half million dollars.

Because of difficulty in securitizing
the income of railroads an assessment was made on a property
basis by the state tax commission
this being accepted as the basis on which payment was made.

EUROPE FORCED TO BUY WHEAT FROM AMERICA

Predict That Foreign Buyers Will Hold Market at High Level

ARGENTIA NEEDS HER CROP

Cancel French Contracts to Provide for Home Consumption

Minneapolis, Minn., July 26.—Likelihood that European government will become important buyers in the American wheat market, maintaining market quotations at a high level, was forecast in telegraphic advices received by grain firms in the Twin Cities to the effect that the Argentine government, although having produced an abundant crop, is looking to the cancellation of contracts with Europe in order to retain sufficient supplies of wheat for home consumption.

Situation Predicted by Barnes

Developments in the world wheat situation, which indicate that Europe must turn to America for wheat supplies, are strikingly similar, grain men say, to events predicted by Julius H. Barnes, wheat director of the United States, who warned that the wheat markets of America must proceed cautiously, in view of the ever present concentrated buying power of European governments.

Advices from Buenos Aires received yesterday say that the French government has yielded to the Argentine government in the cancellation of contracts for a total of 250,000 tons of wheat sold to France by Argentine exporters.

How heavily Europe will have to draw on the United States for wheat will depend on the developments of this season's crop throughout the world.

Crop conditions in wheat, according to the June bulletin of the agricultural and commercial statistics just published by the International Institute of Agriculture, are favorable in Germany, Bulgaria, France, England, Wales, Ireland, Luxembourg, Sweden, Egypt and average in Scotland, Italy, Poland, Switzerland and Czechoslovakia. Injury has occurred in Hungary, because of the great heat in May, the report states.

U. S. Crop to Be Large

The official report of crop estimates from the State of Kansas placing the production at 147,000,000 bushels, was taken as an indication that the winter wheat production in the United States will be fully $18,000,000 bushels, forecast in the latest government report.

Crop conditions are such, however, that the grain trade generally accepts the figure of 800,000,000 bushels as the probable wheat production in the United States this year. Needs for home consumption are roughly placed at 550,000,000, the balance being the exportable surplus for this year's crop.

WEEKLY STOCK REVIEW

Union Stock Yards, South St. Paul, July 26.—The general hog market closed about 50c higher for the week with choice light loads at $15.25 and bulk of sales at $14.00 to $14.50 with a fair sprinkling at $14.75. Extreme top for the week was $15.50, following two sharp advances early in the week. Receipts were about 10,000 less, totaling around 30,000. Stock pigs were in demand at $8.00 to $12.25, with boars at $6.00 to $7.50. The range was wide, heavy mixed hogs selling down to $13.50.

The cattle market closed weak and draggy with offerings limited to medium grades, which were not in very good demand. Most grades were quoted 50c lower than the best time during the week. Top sales were scored at $15.50 early in the week but at the close, there was nothing that could command better than $10 and most were less. Canner steers were slow all week. Occasional sales on good cows and heifers were made at $10.00 to $12.00, but bulk was around $6.00 to $8.00. Canners and cutters were about steady at $3.50 to $5.50 with bulls on a weaker basis at $4.50 to $6.00. Only choice animals sold up to $7.00 or higher. Vealers topped at $15.00, an advance of $2.00 for the week. Stockers and feeders closed 25c lower with steers at $5.00 to $10 mostly and shee at $4.00 to $5.50. Receipts were 19,000.

DROWNED WHILE BATHING IN THE LITTLE BEAVER

Golden Valley, N. D., July 26.—Walter Weiss, 23 years old, was drowned while bathing in the Little Beaver west of here last week.

A party of young people were bathing in the river near the bridge, and were about ready to come out, when Weiss, who was unable to swim, waded too far out. He was taken with cramps and was unable to save himself.

None of the others were able to swim much and their desperate efforts failed to save him. First reached him and tried to drag him ashore, but Weiss caught him about the neck and he was forced to go back to shore.

Weiss has been in beach the past three weeks. His home is at Oshkosh, Wisconsin, and the body was taken there for burial.

PREFERS BURGLAR TO BISHOP

Preacher Would Rather Have Healthy Thief as Father Than Sickly Prelate.

Sharon, Pa.—"If I were compelled to make a choice between a benighted burglar and a sickly bishop as my father I would take the burglar," asserted Rev. H. E. Phillips, pastor of the Oakland Avenue M. E. church, addressing 350 Sharon young people on the subject, "If I were sixteen again."

Rev. Mr. Phillips told his hearers that if he were a boy again that he would devote a portion of each day to exercise and he would participate in athletic sports of various kinds with a view to building up his health.

"Happiness depends in a large extent upon health, and if I were a boy again I would seek to be a fine, healthy specimen of manhood," he declared.

JAP HIGH HAND IN MANCHURIA

They Are No Longer Restrained by Allies, Says Chinese Newspaper.

CALLS IT "REIGN OF TERROR"

Semenoff Troops Assisting the Japanese Terrorize Inhabitants of Kharlar—Seem Bent on Brewing Trouble, Says Paper.

Peking, China.—Reports reaching here indicate that the Japanese are carrying things with a high hand in Manchuria now that the other troops of the allies are virtually out of the country. The Peking and Tientsin Times has received from its correspondents reports which it presents under the heading "Reign of Terror in Manchuria." It says that at Inampo two Russian workmen, who made some disparaging remarks about the Japanese emperor in talking to a Japanese soldier in the Russian railway hospital, were seized by the Japanese soldiers and "summarily shot on the spot."

At Harbin, the newspaper says, Japanese sentries stationed on a bridge threw one Russian off the bridge, breaking his collar bone, and stabbed another in the face a bayonet when the Russians insisted upon crossing the bridge.

The Japanese are reported by the newspaper to have taken full possession of Kharlar and arrested there 11 Russian workers and handed them over to the representative of General Semenoff and the Times adds that by this time "no doubt they have been shot by Baron Unger Steinberg."

Local Population Terrorized.

The Japanese are declared to have brought to Kharlar and armed 500 Semenoff troops, who are reported to be actively assisting the Japanese and helping to terrorize the local population.

The Times predicts that similar incidents are likely to increase as the Japanese hold on the Russian far east becomes more intense, and states that the Japanese garrison at Harbin is to be increased by 1,000 more men. This reinforcement is declared by the paper to be absolutely unnecessary "as the Chinese troops stationed there are sufficient to maintain order."

The situation along the Chinese Eastern railway was characterized by the Times correspondent as very critical. He stated that the Japanese military authorities had decided to place their own guards and sentries along the whole stretch of the railway, which crosses Upper Manchuria, because they were about to send troop trains and military supplies along that railway and were afraid the Russian railway workers, who were opposed to Japanese intervention, might try to stop the Japanese from carrying out their plans.

"The Japanese seem bent upon brewing trouble among the Russian population residing inside the railway area by giving them a series of principles as to how to behave about open strife which will give them an excuse to take decisive action even to the seizing and working of the Chinese Eastern," wrote the correspondent.

The correspondent admitted that the Japanese had the right to send troops over the railway to protect the frontiers against invasion, but that this did not confer the right to occupy settlements along the line, or interfere with the rights of local populations. He declared that the purpose of the Japanese to seize control of the railway called for an immediate protest on the part of the allies.

Forced to Work at Bayonet Point.

In Nikolai, he reported, the railway workers having gone on strike, Japanese soldiers were rounding them up and forcing them at the point of the bayonet to do the work of laborers.

Since the foregoing situation was described, information has been made public in Moscow that Chinese and Russian military commissioners in conference at Verkhne-Udinsk, Trans-Baikalia, have reached an agreement under which "inherent rights of the Russian soviet government in the Eastern Manchurian railway were recognized and the Chinese guaranteed to withdraw their troops from along the railway lines." It was pointed out that China's agreement that the Russians should retain possession of its road deprived the Japanese of one of their best excuses for keeping troops on it.

New Experience for Somebody.

Franklin, O.—If some queer tasting whisky gets on the local market people will know where it comes from. When revenue officers raided a farm three miles from here they found part of a still, consisting of raisins and mash. They couldn't find anybody to arrest, but they put kerosene and soap on the raisins and in the mash, and if any of it is used it will develop a new kind of "kick."

Down in the Coal Mines.

Fairmont, W. Va.—Bloodhounds got the best of Cupid when Miss Grace McDougal, aged 16, eloped with George Male, 19 years old. Parents of the girl learned of the elopement and dogs took the trail. The couple led the hounds a circuitous route through a number of coal mines, but were finally overhauled.

The overture, "Norma," will be played tonight and tomorrow by special request at the New Eltinge Theatre.

SAY CZAR OILER ON FREIGHTER

Customs Men Trail Crown Jewels After Reporters Are Excluded.

RELIEVED DOCKING TEDIUM

But Really There Were 13 Supposedly Noble Russians in the Crew of the Steamer Gov. John Lind From Copenhagen.

New York.—The ordinary humdrum ending of the voyage from Copenhagen of the American freighter Gov. John Lind was marked by two happenings not ordinarily recorded in the log. The first was the discovery by the ship's officers that reporters without their knowledge had invaded the stokehold intent on finding out whether a very distinguished group of Russian oilers, stokers, a bos'n and a mess boy, a dozen in all, were really the late czar of Russia and a number of the members of his former suite.

This excitement had just been quelled and the reporters expelled when there came the customs man, who had heard the story of the escaped Russian ruler and were following a rumor that jewels worth anywhere from $200,000 to $1,000,000, or perhaps it was not dollars but rubles, were concealed on board. They were allowed to investigate and they went away without telling the result of the search.

Knew the Sea.

The Russians were the subject of conversation among the American members of the crew all the way across the Atlantic. They were good natured and answered amiably when the others addressed them as "Count," "Duke," "Prince" or even "Your Highness." One thing the American members of the crew found out was that the Russians knew the sea. They said they intended to follow it permanently.

When the members of the crew asked Sergius Tchistekoff if he was a prince they reported that he answered with due solemnity that he was. Sure, the mess boy also said he was a duke.

The Lind berthed alongside a pier at the foot of West 181st street. When reporters got on board some of the crew pointed out a grimy figure who looked like the late head of the Romanoff family.

"There is the czar," said one of the crew with due impressiveness.

"Are you a member of the Romanoff family?" asked the reporter.

The distinguished oiler in soiled denims stroked his beard with a work-hardened hand. "I really wish you would not ask me that," he said in a quiet voice.

"Say, czar," said the news reporter as he pointed toward an imposing-looking member of the engine room force, "is that a prince?"

The red-headed member of the crew stopped stroking his beard and looked in the direction indicated by an outstretched arm. "Really," he said, "I think he is."

Asked About Jewels.

"Did you bring over any family jewels?" came the next question.

The round-eyed audience from the stoke hold moved involuntarily forward.

"A few," said the bearded oiler.

"They are worth considerable money," suggested the questioner.

"I don't know"—at this point the pier superintendent ordered the visitors off the ship. With a wave of his hand the distinguished oiler departed to his job below decks.

One of the Russians, Wasilz Perepelkin, served as an officer on the journey from Denmark. The others are listed on the ship register as John Tiltin, boatswain; George Schachovkoy, twenty-four years old; Vladimir Klyatkovsky, twenty-two years old; John Swaigelnor, twenty-two years old; Paul Liako, twenty-eight years old; Boris Labensky, twenty-five years old; John Stuchbury, No. 1, twenty-one years old; John Stuchbury, sixty-five years old; Alex Strackoff, fifty-two years old; Paul Tschiloff, twenty-two years old; Nick Wreden, eighteen years old, mess boy.

Costs Indianan 4 Cents to Be Congress Nominee

Washington.—Getting nominated for congress is cheap, despite the primary system, according to expense statements filed by candidates with Tyler Page, clerk of the house of representatives.

In about thirty states, apparently it costs nothing, for not a single statement has been filed from there.

The admitted costs range from 4 cents to $5,000. Henry Span, an Indiana Democrat, wrote a couple of letters, hence the 4-cent item, while E. W. Rothrock, a Pennsylvania Republican spent the $5,000.

Portsmouth, O.—Mrs. Mary Nida, aged 62, of West Virginia and Mrs. James Martin, aged 70, of this city, suffered fracture of both their arms at the shoulder in a runaway. According to medical history there have been only 114 such fractures in 112 years.

$70,000 SCHOOL HOUSE AT ALAMA

Alamo, N. D., July 26.—Bids have been opened and contracts let for a new school building in this city. The general construction contract was given to M. J. Berghel of Washburn for $70,328. The bonds were voted some time ago, but as the state cannot take care of the bonds for some time, warrants will be issued and financed by local parties. Work will begin as soon as materials can be obtained.

I'LL BET, HE SAID, BUT COP SAID NO

It was a tense moment in the Bismarck-Mandan ball game Sunday afternoon.

"I'll bet a dollar he don't get to first base," said a Mandan man, when Harper was at bat. Another man turned to take the bet. "I'll take care of that bet," spoke up Portenman Jack Sorensen.

The would-be bettor was escorted from the grandstand. Policemen stationed at various places at the ball grounds prevented betting during the progress of the game.

The move met with approval of the fans and the management has taken a strict stand against betting at the ball grounds.

GOV'T BUILDING INSPECTOR HERE

L. C. Thum, federal building inspector, arrived in the city Saturday and has been making a general inspection of the maintenance, heating equipment, and general condition of the federal building.

"The building is in very good condition," he stated this morning.

Mr. Thum leaves this evening for Valley City.

BOY ASLEEP ON TRACK KILLED

Duck, N. D., July 26.—Edward Flanagan, 16 year old son of James Flanagan, died early Wednesday morning as a result of injuries received when he was struck by a through freight west of Dickinson. He was sleeping on the tracks when struck, the wheels cutting off his left leg just below the knee. The pelvis was fractured and other internal injuries received.

The tragedy was the climate of a joy ride which three young boys of Jamestown started out on with the intentions of seeing the world.

The overture, "Norma," will be played tonight and tomorrow by special request at the New Eltinge Theatre.

LAST SOLDIER IS NOW HOME AGAIN

Golden Valley, N. D., July 26.—The last soldier from Golden Valley has returned. John Weidner, one of the first local boys to enlist in the "Eight-hundred" returned Saturday night. He went through some of the fiercest fighting on the western front and was severely wounded by machine gun fire. Since then he has been in various government hospitals undergoing treatments for a shattered hip.

He is still slightly disabled as a result of the wound, but otherwise he is looking fine.

STOCK JUDGING TEAM SHOWS UP
GOOD IN MATCH

Ranks Sixth in List of Eleven
Entries in Close Competition

The Burleigh county boys stock
judging team made a very creditable showing at the competition held at the state fair last week, according to County Agent G. W. Gustafson,
who returned to his office today.
Although the Burleigh county team did not win a prize it proved that the local boys can judge stock. The winners in the meet were all boys
who had had training at county agricultural schools or else had been on stock judging teams before.

In competition with these teams
the Burleigh county teams, composed of Leonard Perkins, of Wilton; Lester
Falkenstein, of Baldwin; and Herbert
St. Peter, of Logan, took sixth place out of a field of eleven entries.

First Effort.
The local team had never taken part in a stock judging meet before and was the first team from Burleigh
county to attend the state meet.

Their standing was within a 106
points of the winners, showing that the standing was close and the match
a closely contested one.

Walsh county secured first place;
Bothman second and Barnes county
was third.

CHICAGO WILL HAVE 10 HOUR
AERO SERVICE

New York-Chicago Liner Being Built for Passenger and Freight

Chicago, Ill., July 27.—Ten hour
passenger and mail service between Chicago and New York is made possible by a new air liner to be launched
within a few weeks in Milwaukee,
according to its inventor, Alfred W.
Lawson. The liner is designed to surpass anything constructed in Europe or America for freight or passenger carrying.

The craft, it is said, is designed for night flying, will sail noiselessly
and will have a lifting capacity of 5-ton loads, deadweight. Mufflers have been installed to deaden the noise of the 400 horse-power Liberty motors. Berths and all other conveniences of modern railroad sleeping cars will be included in the new equipment.

The designer estimates that he can leave Chicago at 10 p. m. with 1,500 pounds of mail and 3,000 pounds of express, freight and passengers, and arrive in New York at 8 o'clock the next morning.

100,000 DRAFT
DODGERS TO BE ROUNDED UP NOW

Names Will be Published—$50
Reward for Each One
Arrested

Washington, D. C., July 27. An effort to capture and bring to trial
more than 100,000 draft deserters is to be put under way soon by the War Department, Adj. Gen. Harris said today. Federal, state and local authorities will cooperate in the effort.

A list of names of the men who failed to answer the war call is being prepared by the War Department and is being completed. Months have been spent on the list because it is necessary to check the name of every man listed as a deserter with the names of men who actually served in the war. Otherwise it is feared mistakes which would lead to the arrest of war veterans with honorable records might result. Thousands of names which were on the list were up just after the armistice have been eliminated through this checking process.

When finished the deserter list
will be released for publication, and newspapers will be asked to publish names of deserters in their localities. Publication of a name will be notice that its bearer is "outlawed" and that any officer or citizen may bring about his arrest. A reward of $50 will be paid for the delivery of a draft deserter at the nearest military station. The bureau of

Bismarck Testimony Remains
Unshaken

Time is the best test of truth. Here is a Bismarck story that has stood the test of time. It is a story with a point which will come straight
home to many of us.

Mrs. H. Steinmetz, 113 Second St., Bismarck, says: "Sometime ago I used a couple of boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills from Lenhart's Drug store and they cured me of a severe back ache through the small of my back. I had been annoyed for some time with a lameness and soreness
through my loins and a tired and languid feeling and got no relief until I learned of Doan's Kidney Pills.
(Statement given October 17, 1919.)

On October 13, 1919 Mrs. Steinmetz said: "The cure Doan's Kidney Pills made for me some years ago is still permanent. I am glad to again endorse them and I always recommend them to my friends.
When I hear them complaining of kidney trouble

I give them at ad dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy, get Doan's Kidney Pills the same that
Mrs. Steinmetz had. Foster-Milburn

DIAMONDS ARE GOING UP

Every indication is pointing for a very strong advance
in the prices of Diamonds this fall.

The tendency among the retail Jewelers all over the country is, and has been to buy very light on Diamond, with the expectation of a decline in the diamond market. The prices have not declined but the diamond market has been a little drab. Now what has happened?

The Diamond Syndicate of London who control the entire out-put of diamonds, have withdrawn all the rough diamonds from the market for the present. Note the results.
The Diamond Cutters in the East cannot get any rough Diamonds, and are forced to lay off their cutters for the present.
Now with the present shortage of Diamonds, and the cutters idle, and the stocks of Diamonds in the retail stores over the country very low in their stocks, what is going to happen this fall? These same Jewelers that have been expecting a decline in Diamonds are going into the market to get their fall stocks and there is going to be a scramble

for Diamonds with some very sharp increases in prices. This is bound to happen.
And any Jeweler that is up on the Diamond
Market will tell you this same thing.

We expected this very thing to happen
and some months ago purchased our entire stock of Diamonds for this season.

We are in a position to supply you with anything in the Diamond line that you may want.

Our payment plan will enable you to purchase a Diamond without any great outlay of cash, and in the end will be a very valuable investment for you.

The Rusk Radiator Co., Fargo, N. D. has a new office manager—a woman, Miss Almada LaFleur.

“Why not?” asks F. L. Watkins, Pres., Dakota Business College, Fargo, N. D., of which school Miss LaFleur is a graduate. “We constantly get more calls for trained help than we can supply, both men and women. We expect to be called on for 1000 or more students during the coming school year.”

BIG ROUNDUP AT MINOT BY FLYING “U” CREW, AUG. 2

Art Seeley, Only Cowboy Who Bulldogs Wild Steers From Auto. There

FAMOUS RIDERS COMING.

Minot, N. D., July 27. The Flying “U” Stampede will come off here on August 2, 3 and 4. In addition to the stampede there will be four baseball games between Glasgow, Mont. and Minot.

Art Seeley, the only cowboy in the world who bulldogs a Mexican long horn steer from an automobile, is one of the feature attractions of the roundup.

Long George Francis, owner of the Flying “U” ranch and holder of the championship of Western Canada and the Northwestern United States for roping, will be on deck. Among the prizes which he has won is a $1,000 saddle. His $5,000 trained horse will also be exhibited at Minot.

Lady Rider There

Marie Gibson, prize winner and world famous lady bronk and steer rider, is coming. At a stampede in Saskatchewan last year the Prince of Wales presented her with a diamond laveller for her wonderful exhibition before him.

Other famous riders who will be at the stampede include O. S. Sulby, stamped clown and bronk rider, Sidney Volin, bronk rider and crack roper, time 20 seconds, Johnnie Kincaid, bronk rider and fancy roper, West Dyce, bronk rider and hippodrome rider and roper, Curley Seeley, bronk rider and hippodrome rider and fast roper, and many others.

Prizes Offered

The steers to be used are all real Mexican long horn “yak” steers. The horses are absolutely wild and unbroken and are picked from the most dangerous types in Montana.

One hundred dollars has been offered to any man who can ride Wildrose. One hundred dollars is likewise offered to anyone bringing a horse that cannot be rode.

This stampede is backed by the famous Flying “U” ranch and the Flying “U” brand will be in evidence on much of the stock. Their headquarters are at Glasgow, Montana. Scores of their cowboys, who do not know the meaning of fear, will occupy the stampede.

PRESIDENT'S ILLNESS SHROUDED IN SECRECY BY HIGH OFFICIALS

Wilson is Extremely Touchy About It, Is View Taken by Correspondent, Seeking to Learn of Extent of Illness

Washington, July 27.—Never were the plans and movements of ruler shrouded in greater mystery than those of President Wilson at this time.

Which is just another way of saying that Woodrow Wilson, American citizen, is extremely touchy about his illness. And, unlike other American citizens, Woodrow Wilson is president and has the authority to make his movements and his plans just as secret as he wishes.

Do you remember when your dad was sick? Didn't the inquisitive old lady next door finally “get on your nerves” with her persistent queries about his health? You felt it wasn't that she cared so much about your dad, but that she was just naturally anxious to have some gossip to spread about the town.

You remember she was all keyed up the day the second doctor arrived for a consultation. She could hardly wait to ask you what he said.

Fail to Appreciate.

Well, that is about the way the White House regards questions about the president's health. It suspects the motive. Perhaps it has reason to do so, particularly since the publication of Senator Moses' letter with its repetition of backstairs gossip. On the other hand, it is only fair to say that persons close to the president have failed to appreciate the sincere and sympathetic interest that the people of this country, regardless of party, feel in the health of the president.

Take, for instance, the matter of the president's vacation. It has been said, and apparently truthfully, that the Mayflower, the president's yacht, has been renovated for his use and an elevator installed in it, and that any time he spends away from Washington this summer will be aboard her.

If the president were not so extremely sensitive there would be no reason to make any secret of this if a man cannot mount stairs with-

Secret of Energy These “Dog Days”

Eliminate poisons and congestion from stomach and bowels with Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin

THERE is no time of the year when people should be more careful of their diet than during the hot summer months but unfortunately it is the season of greatest carelessness. Cold foods, ices, urines and overripe fruits are soon followed by cramps, heartburn, indigestion, constipation.

Do not wait until you have a splitting headache, but when you find yourself getting bilious and constipated, that very night take a teaspoonful of Egyptian Senna and Pepsin, which is sold in drug stores under the name of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. By morning your bowels will be relieved and the congestion gone. Then be cautious at meal time for a few days and you will have no further trouble.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a combination of simple laxative herbs with pepsin that has grown in great public favor for thirty years. We know of many thousands of households that are never without a bottle. Mr. Eugene Schamus of Manayunk, Pa., was very dyspeptic until he patronized his druggist for a bottle of Syrup Pepsin, and now he can retain and digest whatever he eats, he is sleeping sounder, gaining in weight and strength and is in all respects feeling better than in years.

Just get yourself a bottle of Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at a drug store and see the great good it will do you.

Millions of people of all ages suffer from occasional or chronic constipation. Let them send name and address to Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 512 Washington Street, Monticello, Ill., for a free sample bottle of his wonderful Syrup Pepsin. 8 million bottles were bought at drug stores last year, the largest sale in the world.

CABLE OVER THE YACHT PICTURES

London, July 27.—Two pictures of Tuesday's race between the Shamrock and Resolute, described as having been transmitted by photo-telegraphy, are printed by the Daily Mirror.

The newspaper admits they are imperfect and not wholly accurate, but contends that when the experimental stage of transmitting photographs by telegraph is passed and the apparatus is developed it will be possible to transmit pictures by this process to any part of the world.

Speeding and Driving Without Lights Costs Motorists $5 and Costs

E. H. Howell, police magistrate, held court last evening. When he had finished dealing out justice two men had given $8.50 each to the city coffers.

Joseph Crewsky, proprietor of a shoe shop on Third street, plead guilty of speeding on Broadway Sunday night. Crewsky said he was hurrying to pass a street car, but the magistrate decided that that wasn't sufficient cause to “hit it up.”

W. L. Sherwin plead guilty of driving a car without lights. Sherwin said the car had no lights, and the auto wasn't his. It cost him $5 and costs for driving it, however.

Emil Heidt appeared, charged with speeding. Heidt claimed he was not speeding, but agreed the horn was blowing a good deal. His case was held over until the officer who made the complaint could be present to testify.

The first production of oil by drilling was made in Oil Creek, Pennsylvania, in 1859.

Man Power and Gasoline Prices

SO LONG as the acute shortage of man-power in the United States continues, the demand for gasoline power will continue to increase.

Every increase in the demand for gasoline power will affect the price of gasoline, because, though petroleum production is continually increasing, it is not keeping pace with the demand for gasoline.

The latest figures available illustrating this point are for March, 1920.

Petroleum Production:	Petroleum Consumption:
Daily Average 1,177,129 bbls.	Daily Average 1,417,129 bbls.
Total for Month 36,491,000 bbls.	Total for Month 43,930,999 bbls.

If production continues for the rest of the year at the rate established in the first quarter, the total production of petroleum for 1920 will be in excess of 410,000,000 barrels.

If consumption continues for the rest of the year at the rate established in the first quarter, the total consumption of petroleum for the year 1920 will be in excess of 495,000,000 barrels.

Or, for the year 1920, consumption may be expected to exceed domestic production of petroleum by 85,000,000 barrels.

Because of its high-powered organization, trained through years of experience to the interpretation of conditions, the Standard Oil Company (Indiana) is anticipating increased need for gasoline and is bending every effort to supply the people of the Middle West with the gasoline they need.

It means much to the Middle West to be able to use freely that most important of all labor-saving devices—the automotive machine.

The Standard Oil Company (Indiana) believes that its greatest service lies in providing at all times, everywhere, and at the lowest possible prices, the gasoline needed to operate these engines of production.

GUARD OFFICER ESCAPES STORM ON GOPHER LAKE

Major B. C. Boyd and Party Almost Dashed on Rocks When Storm Breaks

(Special to The Tribune)
Akeley, Minn., July 27.—Major B. C. Boyd, officer in the North Dakota national guard during the war, and Lieut. O. B. Christianson, of the Philippine scouts, had a narrow escape while fishing on Leech lake near here.

A bad storm broke out as the fishing party was returning to the dock. The waters became so rough that the propeller of the launch was of little use. Boyd's boat was almost swamped by water, and when a rowboat in which another man was riding was cut loose when nearing the dock, one of the ours was lost and a difficult landing was made on the rocks.

Major Boyd, who lives in Grand Forks, formerly was of Hillsboro. He was major of the third battalion first regiment, North Dakota national guard when called into service, and was assigned to command in the 10th infantry in France.

TRANS-COUNTRY
CAR REACHES
SAN FRANCISCO

A wire from the Willys-Overland company to the Lahr Motor Sales company, Willys-Overland distributors in this territory, announces the arrival of the "Transcontinental Overland Stock car" at San Francisco at 7:07 Monday morning. The car traveled 3442 miles between Sunday, July 18th, at noon, and 7:13 a. m., Monday, July 26th, at an average speed of 19.2 miles per hour.

It took 124 1-2 gallons of gasoline to run the 3442 miles, or an average of 27.2 miles per gallon. This is a wonderful record for a stock car to make under great road difficulties and with 21 different drivers at the wheel.

It is the most practical touring test ever made with an automobile, and the results demonstrate what any owner of a Model 4 Overland can do with his car.

THE STATE'S OLDEST NEWSPAPER
(Established 1873)

SIN'S WAGES

"Be sure your sin will find you out." It certainly will. But how and why?

A child may picture an all-powerful Being in the sky, who issues commands and keeps punctilious account of every failure to obey them—until at last the day of reckoning comes and the disobedient are overwhelmed by punishments imposed upon them by the will of this same Great Power.

But as the child grows up the picture sometimes changes. The Great Being is no longer an arbitrary ruler but a Father, and his words are not commands, but warnings; there is perhaps no keeping of books or no great day of Judgment.

But every deed has natural results, and silently and slowly the fruits of good and evil ways appear—character and reputation are fixed; the past cannot be undone; and the individual sees himself maimed or seared or weakened or caught like a traveler in a quicksand that he has been warned to avoid. Not because his Heavenly Father wants to hurt him, but simply and solely because he reaps what he has sown.

Men call it sin because it has those wages. And all the king's horses and all the king's men cannot make them any different.

A Jap's command is a Chinaman's cue.

BATHTUBS

When the advertisement offers a house for rent, "modern," one visualizes the situation at once. That means with a dandy little bath, immaculately white and hot and cold water. And more than that: it means a daily hot or cold bath morning, noon and night, or morning, noon and night, as one wishes. But the bathtub, comparatively, is of recent invention and installation.

The patrician, George Washington, didn't know a bathtub as we know it; nor did the sage of Monticello, Thomas Jefferson, nor even Andy Jackson. Not on your daguerrotype! Those boys, if the truth was known, probably dragged out the old tin tub on Saturday night and "took their" just like the rest of the gang.

One reads of the wonderful baths of Rome, and the reading does sound good. But somewhere between then and the 1800s there must have been an awful slip in cleanliness, for in those good old London days when Sam Pepys, the diarist, was cutting up, things were pretty dirty. And no bathtubs. In fact, in some places "over there," the bathtub is still a novelty and in its infancy.

But over here it is surely appreciated. Crowds viewed the first one in Cincinnati, called the first in the country, on Christmas, 1842. Neat little thing—solid mahogany lined with sheet lead! Newspapers said "vanity," doctors said "unhealthy."

Not to say anything about the rest of the country, just what would the plumber do without the bathtub? Who'd spring the joke about the hotel guest who didn't want a room with bath because it wasn't anywhere near Saturday, if there were no tubs?

Those who converse with clever people are never made fools of.

HEALTHY MANHOOD

Between January 1, and August 31, 1918: the medical boards examining drafted men in England examined 2,080,709 men.

Of these not more than 36 to 37 percent were placed in Grade 1—that is, approximately, only one in every three had attained the normal standard of health and strength and was capable of enduring physical exertion suitable to his age.

The British Medical Journal, commenting on this state of facts, says:

"The preliminary results indicate that preventable disease is responsible for the bulk of the physical disabilities, and demonstrate the ravages which industrial life has made upon our real national capital—the health and vigor of the population. Too little food, too long hours of work, too little sleep, too little play, too little fresh air, too little comfort in the home are evidently the chief factors concerned in producing this mass of physical inefficiency with all its concomitant human misery and direct loss to the country?"

But that was in England? True. But in America the percentages of men who passed the physical tests was below 60 percent; while in only one-fourth was the percentage as high as 70 and 80; in the remaining half of the states it ranged from 60 to 69 percent.

Furthermore, analysis of the records by the General Staff show that the country boys made better records than those from the cities; white registrants better than colored; natives better than alien born.

It is, therefore, as true of America as of England that industrial life has made ravages in the health of our young manhood, and that the poorer and most exploited of our population—the industrial population of the cities, the negroes, and the foreign born, are suffering physical ills traceable to "too little food, too long hours of work, too little sleep, too little play, too little fresh air, too little comfort in the home."

It is a warning that America ought to heed.

Congress should tax excess baggage platforms.

ENJOY YOURSELF

Let's live while the living is good.

One passes this way but once.

Tomorrow may never come.

The man, and the woman, who makes the very best out of every day is he who gets the most enjoyment and comfort out of life.

Take the wife and the children, father, out on that little picnic now. Just bundle them up, get into the flivver or the eight-cylinder motor and be off. Trite, but true: procrastination persists still in being the thief of time.

There's time for work and there's time for play. And the good Lord never intended, surely, that any of his children should limit the play to his two weeks' vacation.

Along with the day's work it would seem healthy and wise to crowd into it a little bit of vigorous recreation. An hour of recreation should put two hours of pep into the brain and the muscle of every worker.

Get out in the open. Change the pace. Mix them up. It is a beautiful world, made for every person to enjoy every minute of every day, sunshine, cloud or storm.

Get your share.

A minority party is a henpecked husband.

One advantage in being president of Mexico is that you are sure to rest in peace.

It looks like the more long-green women pay for their dresses the shorter they get.

"Never put off until tomorrow what can be done today." It may cost you about $1 more.

In order to keep up with the births of new oil companies, watches with a faster tick should be made.

EDITORIAL REVIEW

Comments reproduced in this column may or may not express the opinions of The Tribune. They are presented here in order that our readers may have both sides of important issues which are being discussed in the press of the day.

WILSONISM AS AN ISSUE

"No man is big enough to run this great republic." In that terse sentence Mr. Harding expressed a fact which he puts to the front in his speech of acceptance as the paramount issue of the campaign. He doesn't dodge the League of Nations, on the contrary, he welcomes the "solemn referendum" which the president demands, but he has exhibited a remarkable faculty for reaching the heart of the situation when he seizes upon "four years more of Wilsonism" as the uppermost consideration in the minds of the people.

Mr. Harding takes up first the necessity of a return to our traditional form of representative government with constitutionally balanced powers and functions of the executive and legislative divisions, and the abandonment of the autocratic domination of the executive, of which we have had such an offensive exhibition during the past year and a half. Over against this he sketches what he proposes in the event of his election as his program of co-operation and council with a cabinet of great capacity, aided by the participation of the vice president as an adviser and collaborator, and co-operation with a House of Representatives fresh from the people and a Senate which has already proven itself to be the conservator of the nation's independence. That this will appeal to the public we have no manner of doubt, for we believe that there is no consideration lying in the back of the heads of more voters as the determining factor of their action at the polls in November than the desire to be rid of Wilsonism and get back to fundamental principles of administration in a representative democracy. And this feeling loses nothing of its keenness from the outgivings of the Sunday conference at the White House, where, we are told by the participants, Mr. Wilson and Mr. Cox were found to be in perfect accord.—Minneapolis Journal.

One of the Nonpartisan candidates for railroad commissioner in North Dakota is a member of the legislature which increased the pay of railroad commissioners in that state; in fact, introduced the bill himself. Then he ran for the office in the recent primary election. That looks like clever politics—boost the salary of an office then climb into the office. But the state constitution says that no man shall be eligible for any office the pay of which shall have been increased by the legislature while he was a member of that body. In any other state that constitutional provision would be sufficient to exclude this thrift politician from a realization of his plans. How will it work in Nonpartisan North Dakota?—Minneapolis Tribune.

AS IT LOOKS TO ME

Washington, D. C., July 27.—There are over 400,000 American citizens in this country who are completely disfranchised. They are taxed without representation. They are governed by a president in whose choice they have not participated. They obey laws by a senate and a house for the members of which they have not voted. They have committed no crime except that of living in the District of Columbia.

Everyone is aware of this fact, but it is not always presented in this light. Washingtonians, however, are beginning to feel the situation acutely, and there is evidence of a widespread and persistent demand here for suffrage, not only for woman suffrage but also for the old-fashioned, he-man variety.

Not a schoolboy, it is hoped, is ignorant of the way in which the anomalous situation, by which residents of the capital are deprived of representation in the capital, arose. When this nation was in its infancy jealousy between the 13 states was acute. The seat of government, apparently, had to be situated in one of the states, but it was difficult to agree upon the one to be honored. Accordingly, after new York and Philadelphia had each served for a term, the capital was finally established in the District of Columbia, ceded to the federal government by Maryland and Virginia.

Further to remove the capital from minor political dissensions and from petty bickering the residents of the district were given no votes. At the time this was not thought an injustice, but residents of Washington are now grumbling at their disfranchisement and are supported by local organizations and the local press. One of the papers here hit, somewhat humorously, at the situation in a cartoon printed the day before Governor Cox arrived for his conference with President Wilson. The picture showed a man hanging political banners and the caption was: "We can bannerize even if we cannot ballot."

EXCEPTIONAL CAST SUPPORTS CONSTANCE BINNEY

"Erastus Susan," a Play of American Girlhood

Constance Binney, the youthful actress in Reelfoot Pictures, will make her debut as a screen star tomorrow at the Edison theatre, in "Erastus Susan." This delightful story of the Mennonite maid who won out despite poverty and educational handicaps, was adapted from Helen R. Martin's novel, "Darnabetta," which was the basis of a successful stage vehicle for Mrs. Fiske a few seasons back. The picture was directed by John S. Robertson.

Miss Binney's leading man is Jerry Austin, who made his stage debut in "The Squaw Man," and later entered the picture field where his noteworthy performances in "Resurrection" and "A Perfect Lady" brought him to the fore.

The part of Juliet Miller, erstwhile Susan, which was played by Mrs. Fiske in the stage version, was acted for the screen by Jane Alden, long known to film audiences for her work in "The Birth of a Nation," "The Naulahka," "Common Clay" and "The Unpardonable Sin." It is of interest that Miss Alden was at one time associated with Mrs. Fiske on the stage. So, also, was Georges Renavent, who plays the role of Emanuel Dreary in this photoplay.

Another well-known actor in the cast of "Erastus Susan" is Anders Randolf, whose delineation of the financier in the picture version of "The Lion and the Mouse," was a distinct hit.

GOOD ENOUGH FOR ME.

Some folks are always wishin' That they could live in California. Or down about the tropics Where the vultures build their nest. Their minds are never contented Their hearts are never free— But the grand old state of North Dakota Is good enough for me.

Some folks sigh for Florida And long for old Kentucky. Where the meadow grass is blue. Some like Louisiana And some like Tennessee. But the grand old state of North Dakota Is good enough for me.

Our people have no room to kick about what they have to eat. And as for our climate I'm sure it can't be beat; Why do they want to leave us? I'm sure I cannot see— For this grand old state of North Dakota Is just the place for me.

So they're welcome to their tropics, And the places they like best. Their Florida and their Oregon, Their Kentucky and Missouri. For I love this good old state Where my heart is light and free. So give me North Dakota—my North Dakota—for me.

ONE WOMAN'S EXPERIENCE

Of Interest to Expectant Mothers

Goshen, Ind.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with good results after I had suffered for some time with female trouble. Some years ago I had twin boys and took your Vegetable Compound before they came. Before my four-year-old boy was born, and afterwards, and think it fine for such cases. I tell others what it did for me and you may publish my testimonial."—Mrs. Geo. A. Fuoss, 711 S. 9th St., Goshen, Indiana.

The experience of Motherhood is a trying one to most women and marks distinctly an epoch in their lives. Not one woman in a hundred is prepared or understands how to properly care for herself. Every woman at this time should rely upon Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a most valuable tonic and invigorator of the female organism.

In many homes once childless there are now children because of the fact that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound makes women normal, healthy and strong and this good old fashioned root and herb remedy contains no narcotics or harmful drugs.

EVENTS AND GOSSIP FOR THE FANS

AFTER SERIES OF GAMES WITH MANDAN'S CLUB

Local Ball Team May Also Meet Valley City in a Second Series of Games

Local baseball fans may see some mighty fast ball in the next few weeks if plans now under way for the schedule of the club materialize.

Another series of games is being sought with Valley City by the club management. The local club refuses to admit that Valley City has any chance to win three out of four games. The first two games at Valley City were close, and Bismarck should have won at least one of them, the players declare. The way that the local players counted the Valley City pitchers here is another reason why the fans would like to see a second series. Valley City had no license to win the second game here, for Needham pitched excellent ball and the local club hit the ball in the one big inning. It was an off day in the field for the local club.

A series of several games will be sought with Mandan also. In the two games both teams played fine ball and indicate that they are well matched. Mandan refuses to admit Bismarck had any good reason to win the first game, and the fans of both cities would like to see the two teams in action again.

NAPOLEON IN FAST FINISH WITH LINTON

Game Won in Ninth Inning After Linton Gets Lead of One Run in First Half

Napoleon, July 25.—Napoleon won a fast and hard-fought game from Linton Sunday by a score of 4 to 2. After Linton had scored two runs in the first half of the ninth, giving Linton a one-run lead Napoleon came back and scored two winning runs.

With reports in that Braddock lost to Hazelton Sunday Napoleon has an equal chance of winning the championship of the circuit in this section. If Kintyre wins from Braddock Sunday it will give Napoleon the pennant. If Braddock wins it will be a tie between Napoleon and Braddock.

Here are the big innings: First Inning. Napoleon. Bower struck out. Gummeter got to first on an error and then Home landed on one for a home run. Davenport went out homing to Petrie. Meier struck out. Fourth Inning. Linton. Petrie out. Houser to Davenport. Becker walked. Wood singled and 4. Becker was caught at third. Wood stole second, went to third on a passed ball and scored when Ronning beat out an infield hit. Stewart struck out. The Wind-up. Ninth Inning. Linton—Stewart went out. Meier to Davenport, Voks-

STORY OF GRIT NEEDED FOR LONG RACE TOLD IN PICTURES

FALLER

By DEAN SNYDER. Wonderful stories are told in human faces—facts such as these that show the results of victorious efforts on the athletic field. It is an excellent study of speed versus endurance. One had just dashed ahead in a field of 100-yard sprinters, all swifter than eagles, when these pictures were taken. The other had paced over the glowing clinders for the long grind of 10,000 meters (10,936.23 yards).

Both were thrilled by the victory won. Both were smiling. Yet there was a wide degree of difference in their physical condition. Two Stars. They are Loren Murchison, the N. Y. 4-4000-foot and Fred V. Faller, distance runner from Dorchester, Mass. Murchison's heart was beating the faster. His event was a sudden dash out of the holes, a wild burst of speed for the short period of 10 seconds. It left no indication of fatigue on his face. Faller had been grinding away at a remarkable distance, mile for a few seconds, minutes, beating his nearest rival, Harold Johnson of Pittsburg, to the tape in a last mad sprint for the final 100 yards of the distance. Faller's race at the Harvard stadium in the final trials was by far the most spectacular of the great brilliant program.

Army Made Faller. The Dorchester boy is 24 years old. He now claims that army life made him. He has been running eight years. Prior to 1916 he didn't start in the athletic world by his performances. The next year he began to be a winner in 10-mile cross-country races. Overseas he competed in two inter-allied marathons and won both. He was heralded as the greatest runner overseas. Since the war he has won the 10-mile over-hill-and-dale event in both New England and New York championship meets.

"I attribute what success I have had in the running game to my army life during the war," he says, "and I think that many another athlete can vouch for the same reason."

Fast Gas-Away. Murchison hails from New York. He is lightly but compactly built. Dash is his middle name. His specialties are 50, 75 and 100-yard events. Last winter Loren featured in many indoor sprinting meets. His set-away is perfectly executed. He comes up out of the holes faster than any of the great sextet of century men selected for the U. S. Olympic team.

The New York A. C. boy's win over such fellows as Charles Paddock and Jack Scholz stamps him as one of the fleetest for the century dash of our wonderful selection.

Cocher's Analysis. Martin Delaney, health coach of the Olympic team of stars, says that the sprint is harder on a runner than the long grind. The sudden exertion is a severe test of the heart. Distance running is not harmful unless the runner reaches the terrible state where fatigue poisoning sets in, according to Delaney.

So the story that faces tell is perhaps somewhat deceiving if Delaney's analysis is correct. Faller's smile, after doing the grind of six miles, is pitiful and strained. Murchison's is a perfect copy of exhilaration due to a sudden burst of superb exercise.

and stole second, going on to third when Mohr let the throw go through. E. Houser reached first and Nord scored when O. Becker reached first on an error by Gummeter. Mohr scored. Becker stole second and was out trying to steal third. Bortie struck out. Ninth Inning Napoleon. Meier flew out to left. Junge struck out. Nord reached first on an error by Mohr.

The "Cheerfulness" Ingredient

Brazilla

is "Yerba Mate"

(Pronounced Eyer-bah Mah-tay)

Yerba Mate, the "cheer-up" ingredient of Brazilla

What is the mysterious "cheerfulness" ingredient in Brazilla?

This is the question everybody has been asking. All who have tried this deliciously cooling, refreshing and invigorating drink have noticed that in Brazilla, the stimulating, energizing, "pep" producing effect of this surprisingly good new drink.

The answer is given above. The mysterious ingredient is no longer a mystery. It is Yerba Mate (pronounced Eyer-bah Mah-tay).

Yerba Mate comes from Brazil and other South American countries. It is the universal drink there. Everybody in Brazil drinks Yerba Mate, the richest and the poorest. It is made from the leaves of a tree, and was discovered first by the Jesuit Indians and by them introduced to the Jesuit missionaries who recognized its merits and developed the growing of the trees and curing of the leaves.

Yerba Mate is a splendid stimulant, yet it is harmless. It has no evil effects on the system. It forms no habits, and it leaves no evil after effects. It is not a drug.

In South America it has supplanted wines, beer, coffee and tea. It is sustaining and invigorating.

Rev. Dr. J. A. Zahm, Col. Roosevelt's companion in his famous South American exploration, says of it in his book "Through South America's Southland":

"Mate is the most invigorating beverage imaginable and leaves no disagreeable after effects. It has preserved South America from the debasing evils of alcoholism. Chemists and physicians who have made a special study of the effects of Mate on the human system are all loud in its praises. They recommend it both as a tonic and a stimulant. It does not cause insomnia, neither does it cause perturbation of the heart. Give a Brazilian a handful of Mate and he will work all day without food. It seems to dispel hunger and invigorate the body."

A Government bulletin on Yerba Mate describes it as "a drink that cheers but does not inebriate." That is why we call it "The Cheer-Up Drink."

It makes you happy, it makes you smile. It gives you new vigor and energy. And it is harmless. It is good for young or old.

Yerba Mate is blended in Brazilla with choice tropical fruits, spices and herbs into a drink that you will enjoy from the first sip. TRY IT.

Write for our booklet "The Interesting Story About Brazilla," telling all about Yerba Mate, the "cheerfulness ingredient." Mailed on request.

Ten Years Younger Than His Years

Doesn't it make you feel good—cause you to straighten up and feel "chesty"—when someone guesses your age at ten years or so younger than you really are? You look into your mirror, smile with satisfaction and say to yourself: "Well, he didn't make such a bad guess, at that."

The point is: You're no older than your vitality.

If a man is strong, vigorous, mentally alert, fine and fit at 50 he has a better chance of living up to 80 than a man of 30 who is weak and run-down has of living up to 60. While none of us can stay the years nor stop time, we should all make an heroic effort to successfully resist the effects of time by ever keeping our vitality at-par.

When you sense a feeling of slowing down of your physical forces—when your stomach, liver, kidneys and other organs show signs of weakness—when you notice a lack of your old time "pep" and "punch" in other words, when you feel your vitality is on the wane, you should com-

menace at once to restore your energy, strength and endurance by taking
